Suggestions with regard to a School of Design.

National Art Library

of a high order, & promise of remarkable development in Art.

Establish a Gallery of American Art and solicit Contributions of works for it. Offering Annual prizes for the best work in Each Department. Such a Gallery with its prizes would do much to stimulate art in this Country. The publication of an Art Journal Monthly or Quarterly would not be a bad idea. An Annual Convention of American Artists in Washington and in Connection therewith an Exhibition of Works of Art would be good. I am in hopes your School of Design will become National in its character & lead to the Establishment of a College or University of Art with a Branch School of Art in Italy.

Respectfully Yours

pg. a. above

Sir:

If no pleasure equals that of doing good, your happiness must indeed be great, to witness from day to day the growth and perfection of institutions, full of so much beneficence & usefulness.

Let me offer, for what they are worth, a few suggestions relating to the advancement of Art.

Supplement your School of Design by securing the adoption in the Washington Public Schools of the System of Drawing so successful in Public Schools in Boston Mass.

The Washington Pub. Schools will thus become the nurseries of Art - the preparatory Schools - the feeders of your School of Design. A foundation will be laid early in life and a taste created or developed in the public mind.

An inspection of the drawings made in the Schools will enable Committees of Artists to single out such Scholars as exhibit sufficient genius or ability to pay for giving them the facilities for a higher education in Art. Care in the selection of Candidates will do much to raise the Standard & rank of your institution.
It would be well to have one department in Sculpture and one in Painting to which none shall be admitted except students of unusual genius & ability - and these should have been recommended by Competent Committees and judges.

Admission as a student to the School of Design might be made a reward in the Public Schools of proficiency in Art.
Whether the offering of Prizes in the School of Design would quicken the efforts of genius is worthy of consideration.

Poverty too often checks the development of genius and hides from view those who with a little encouragement and aid might bloom & bless the world.

Not long since I discovered, by accident, a young Sculptor and my wife found a young singer of rare skill but unfortunately too poor to make their own opportunities - and there are hundreds of others - Children of genius - all over the land - who only need a word of Encouragement or opportunity to bring them out.

Your School may become National by some such policy as here suggested.

Send Circulars to all Sculptors, Artists & Teachers of Art whose addresses you can obtain - offering to furnish free facilities for study to such youth of both Sexes, as on examination, by Competent Committees, in Sculpture - Painting &c, as the case may be, - shall evince special gifts.

Dear Sir.

Having frequently heard of your admiration for, and appreciation of, the "Finn's Boat", I have taken the liberty of addressing you a few lines relative to a very fine Oil-Painting which I have in my possession in this City.

It was painted by my late brother, Mr. Oregon Wilson, of whom it may be possible, you have heard, as he was a young American Artist with a rapidly increasing reputation when he died, which was last September, in California, when finishing a Portrait of Senator J. F. Jones of Nevada.

The Painting is entitled "Woman's Devotion" representing a Wounded (Confederate) Officer on the battlefield of Winchester Va, being bravely cared for by a young lady of that city. It is a true incident of the late war, and is very large or at least moderately so, being probably 6 x 8 ft.

As to its merits or demerits I will not now trouble you, especially as I do not know whether you will see this.

The idea is taken from a paragraph or so in a book entitled "Moheni" by J. Esten Cook of Va, published since the war.

This letter, together with all Press Criticisms & notices or any papers connected with it, I have here.

Among the acquaintances of myself or late brother, I could refer you to Senator Jones, Sen.
E. Mc Cook of Colorado, Senator Spencer of Alabama, Col. Thos.
R. Ochiltree of Texas and others.
My object in writing was to inquire as to when you might be in this city, and to request that you would honor me with a call that I might show you the painting and more thoroughly explain

The artist being an American Southerner (from Frederickburg Va.) the picture being an American subject, and withal a magnifi-cent one, I have flattered myself that it is entitled

Return, if not called for in 5 days.

Miss S. M. Freeborne, Sculptor,

Formerly of Hudson-on-Hudson, and for several years a student under Dr. Wm. Rimmer, M. A., of Boston, has opened a Studio in New York city at 1267 Broadway.†

Believing that ART has a noble work to do, and an important influence to exert for good or evil in the Church and in the World, she proposes to devote herself especially to the department of CHRISTIAN ART.

Miss Freeborne has been advised by several Clergymen of New York city to send this private circular to Clergymen and Laymen in the Church, for the purpose of calling their particular attention to the kind of work she is ready to do, and to ask their hearty co-operation in the effort to raise the standard of CHRISTIAN ART in this country.

The works in the Studio now completed, are the model of the life-size statue of S. AGNES, designed for S. Agnes' School in Albany, N. Y. ; Cartoons in brown, and also in color, for rendering in stained glass ; Memorial designs of all kinds ; Portrait busts ; Statuettes and Medallions in relief and intaglio. Photographs of the above, and of works that have gone from the Studio, will be furnished to any one on application by mail, at the usual photographer's prices.

The Studio is open for visitors generally, on Saturday afternoons, and for business every week-day from 10½ A. M. to 4 P. M.

This circular is sent forth with the concurrence of the following Bishops and Presbyters :

- Rt. Rev. HORATIO POTTER, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., Bishop of N. Y.
“ “ WILLIAM CROSWELL DOANE, D. D., Bishop of Albany.

W. T. Walters, Esq

Dear Sir,

In reply to your favor of yesterday about the price of Boughton's picture, 'The Hair premium' I beg to say that we would be willing to accept $4500. for it from the Corcoran gallery.

As said before, we refused for this picture in London £3000. or $5000. gold, and believe, if shipped back, it would bring that much more, and if kept here the picture will bring a good price next fall - however if the Corcoran gallery decides to take it now, they will be welcome to it at the reduced price.

Hoping to be favored by an early answer believe me to be always
